

She
fought
for her country.

Now she's fighting
housing discrimination
here at home.

Karen defended the red, white, and blue and then was turned down for housing because she's Black. After meeting her, the rental agent told Karen that the apartment she wanted to see was rented – even though it was still available. Denying housing based on race or national origin is against the law.

The only way to stop housing discrimination is to fight it.

FAIR HOUSING IS THE LAW!

If you suspect unfair housing practices, contact HUD or your local Fair Housing Center.
